Numb. 13423.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday June 5, to Saturday June 9, 1792.

By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS divers wicked and ſeditious Writings have been printed, publiſhed, and induſtriouſly diſperſed, tending to excite Tumult and Diſorder, by endeavouring to raiſe groundleſs Jealouſies and Diſcontents in the Minds of Our faithful and loving Subjects, reſpecting the Laws and happy Conſtitution of Government, Civil and Religious, eſtabliſhed in this Kingdom; and endeavouring to vilify and bring into Contempt the wiſe and wholeſome Proviſions made at the Time of the Glorious Revolution, and ſince ſtrengthened and confirmed by ſubſequent Laws for the Preſervation and Security of the Rights and Liberties of Our faithful and loving Subjects: And whereas divers Writings have alſo been printed, publiſhed and induſtriouſly diſperſed, recommending the ſaid wicked and ſeditious Publications to the Attention of all Our faithful and loving Subjects: And whereas we have alſo Reaſon to believe that Correſpondencies have been entered into with ſundry Perſons in Foreign Parts, with a View to forward the criminal and wicked Purpoſes above mentioned. And whereas the Wealth, Happineſs and Proſperity of this Kingdom do, under Divine Providence, chiefly depend upon a due Submiſſion to the Laws, a juſt Confidence in the Integrity and Wiſdom of Parliament, and a Continuance of that zealous Attachment to the Government and Conſtitution of the Kingdom, which has ever prevailed in the Minds of the People thereof: And whereas there is nothing which We ſo earneſtly deſire as to ſecure the Publick Peace and Proſperity, and to preſerve to all Our loving Subjects the full Enjoyment of their Rights and Liberties, both Religious and Civil: We, therefore, being reſolved, as far as in Us lies, to repreſs the wicked and ſeditious Practices aforeſaid, and to deter all Perſons from following ſo pernicious an Example, have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to iſſue this Our Royal Proclamation, ſolemnly warning all Our loving Subjects, as they tender their own Happineſs, and that of their Poſterity, to guard againſt all ſuch Attempts, which aim at the Subverſion of all regular Government within this Kingdom, and which are inconſiſtent with the Peace and Order of Society; and earneſtly exhorting them at all Times, and to the utmoſt of their Power, to avoid and diſcourage all Proceedings, tending to produce Riots and Tumults; and We do ſtrictly charge and command all Our Magiſtrates in and throughout Our Kingdom of Great Britain, that they do make diligent Enquiry, in order to diſcover the Authors and Printers of ſuch wicked and ſeditious Writings as aforeſaid, and all others who ſhall diſperſe the ſame: And We do further charge and command all Our Sheriffs, Juſtices of the Peace, chief Magiſtrates in Our Cities, Boroughs and Corporations, and all other Our Officers and Magiſtrates throughout Our Kingdom of Great Britain, that they do, in their ſeveral and reſpective Stations, take the moſt immediate and effectual Care to ſuppreſs preſs and prevent all Riots, Tumults and other Diſorders, which may be attempted to be raiſed or made by any Perſon or Perſons, which, on whatever Pretext they may be grounded, are not only contrary to Law, but dangerous to the moſt important Intereſts of this Kingdom: And We do further require and command all and every Our Magiſtrates aforeſaid, that they do, from Time to Time, tranſmit to One of Our Principal Secretaries of State, due and full Information of ſuch Perſons as ſhall be found offending as aforeſaid, or in any Degree aiding or abetting therein; it being Our Determination, for the Preſervation of the Peace and Happineſs of Our faithful and loving Subjects, to carry the Laws vigorouſly into Execution againſt ſuch Offenders as aforeſaid.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's Houſe, the Twenty-firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-two, in the Thirty-ſecond Year of Our Reign.

GOD ſave the KING.

Whitehall, June 9.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, has been preſented to the King by the Right Honorable Lord Eardley and John Wilmot, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, in Council aſſembled, beg Leave to lay before your Majeſty the Addreſs of a faithful and loyal People, to teſtify our Attachment to your Majeſty's illuſtrious Family, the Honor of your Crown, and the Dignity of the Britiſh Empire. We eſteem it eſſentially our Duty, at this Time, to declare to the World our Affection for your Royal Perſon, our Confidence in the Wiſdom of your Adminiſtration, and our Abhorrence of the malignant Attempts which have been made to weaken, in the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects, a reſpectful Obedience to the Laws and Conſtitution of this Country.

With Sentiments of Duty and Affection we beg Leave humbly to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, in our ſeveral Stations, both as Magiſtrates and private Men, exert ourſelves at all Times in the Preſervation of public Order and good Government, and in effectuating more particularly the great Objects of your Majeſty's gracious Proclamation. We are too ſenſible of the Value and Excellence of our happy Conſtitution, and how much we owe to your Majeſty's paternal Care and Affection for your People, not to be ſolicitous to reſtrain, by every Means which God and the Laws have put into our Power, a Spirit of Sedition and Tumult, as tending to the Subverſion of all Law and Government, and to involve all Orders of Men in Anarchy and Confuſion.

Under theſe Impreſſions we deſire to aſſure your Majeſty, that it is our earneſt Wiſh that your Majeſty may long live to ſway the Britiſh Sceptre, and reign the revered Sovereign of a loyal, a free, and a happy People.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the ſaid City, the 6th Day of June, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

James Soden, Mayor.

Whitehall, June 9.

The following Addreſſes having been delivered or tranſmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the City of Oxford in the County of Oxford, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to expreſs our unfeigned Gratitude for the freſh Mark of your Majeſty's Watchfulneſs over the Safety of your Subjects, manifeſted in your late Royal Proclamation.

By this moſt ſeaſonable Admonition your Majeſty has performed the Part of the Father of your People; and we truſt that the Promptitude of our Obedience will be ſome Proof of our unſhaken Loyalty to your Majeſty's Perſon, of our inviolable Attachment to our happy Conſtitution, and of our Confidence in the Integrity and Wiſdom of Parliament.

No wonder, Sire, that the Enemies of this Country, and all who hope to profit by it's Ruin, ſhould direct their Attack againſt the Monarchy, the main Pillar and great Support of our incomparable Conſtitution: But, fortunately for the Times in which we live, your Majeſty, and your illuſtrious Anceſtors of the Houſe of Brunſwick, have long ſince convinced a grateful People, that Kingly Power, wiſely limited, is the ſureſt Safeguard of the Rights and Liberties of a great Nation.

We have alſo to regret, that no Branch of the Britiſh Conſtitution has failed to meet it's full Share of Reproach and Calumny; the Church, the Nobility, the Repreſentation of the People, have each, in their Turn, become the Object of direct Attack, malignant Invective, and inſidious Ridicule. Nor do we, your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, conſcious of the Poſſeſſion of well-regulated Freedom, feel ourſelves leſs inſulted than we are injured by theſe Attempts to prove us to be the miſerable Dupes of deſigning Tyranny.

We truſt, that under the Preſſure of real Grievances we never ſhall be wanting in Spirit and Perſeverance to ſeek and to obtain Conſtitutional Redreſs; but, ſatisfied with the unexampled Bleſſings of our free Conſtitution, and rejoicing in the growing Proſperity of your Majeſty's Dominions, we ſhould fail in our Duty to your Majeſty, to ourſelves, and to our Poſterity, if we did not exert our utmoſt Endeavours to detect, withſtand, and diſcountenance all Attempts to disturb the Public Tranquility, and every base and insidious Art to seduce and delude a happy People.

Given under our Common Seal, at our Council Chamber in the City of Oxford, the 1st Day of June, in the Thirty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Delivered by Edward Lock, Esq; Mayor, attended by the Right Hon. Sir John Skynner, Recorder, and Francis Burton and Arthur Annesley, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for that City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Exeter, in Chamber assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

FULLY convinced that the Wealth, Happiness and Prosperity of this Kingdom depend on a due Submission to the Laws, a just Confidence in the Wisdom and Integrity of Parliament, and a Continuance of that zealous Attachment to the Government and Constitution which has ever prevailed in the Minds of the People, we your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Exeter, beg Leave to approach the Throne with every Sentiment of Loyalty and Affection towards your Majesty's Royal Person, and to return your Majesty our most sincere and cordial Acknowledgements for the Measures which your Majesty hath thought proper to adopt, in order to guard against and counteract the Effects of the late seditious Publications, which have been industriously dispersed throughout the Kingdom.

It is with the utmost Concern and Abhorrence that we observe the daring Attempts which have been made to inculcate Doctrines of the most seditious Import, tending to weaken every Sentiment of Obedience to the Laws, and to raise groundless Discontents in the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects; and we see with equal Regret the Methods which are pursued for the further propagating such destructive Opinions.

We should be unworthy of the Name of Englishmen, aad the many Blessings and peculiar Advantages we enjoy, could we view with Indifference, or without the most profound Veneration, that excellent and invaluable Constitution, in Church and State, delivered down to us by our Ancestors, and which our Posterity have a Right to claim at our Hands; under which the People of this Nation have flourished, and become great and powerful; happy at Home, and respected Abroad; possessing in the utmost Extent their Civil and Religious Rights, and the full Enjoyment of true well-regulated Freedom. Few, we trust, will be found willing to adopt speculative Opinions, in Exchange for the happy Experience of Ages past; and we are well assured that the pernicious Doctrines, which have been promulgated, are in direct Opposition to the fixed Sentiments of the great Body of the People. The good Sense and Spirit of the People of England will be, as it hath been in former Times, a sufficient Safeguard and Protection to them; They will set a just Value on their present happy Condition, and will not be led away by the delusive Opinions of Men, who, under specious Appellations and the Shew of Patriotism, pursue a Conduct tending to subvert the Constitution and Government so happily established amongst them.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall hold it to be our indispensible Duty to pay the strictest Obedience to your Majesty's Royal Proclamation, which we cannot but consider as a fresh Instance of your Majesty's paternal Care and Anxiety for the Welfare of your People; and that we will chearfully exert ourselves, to the utmost of our Power, as Magistrates and in our several Stations, to discourage and suppress every Attempt which may be made against the Public Peace and Order of Society. May the present Constitution of this Country, the Work of Ages, and the Admiration of Mankind, be perpetual. May Divine Providence support and protect it; and may your Majesty long continue to be, as you have been, it's faithful Guardian and Friend, and long enjoy the Affection and the Gratitude of a free and loyal People.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the City of Exeter, on the 2d Day of June, 1792.

[Delivered by John Baring, Esq; and James Buller, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for that City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Southwark.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE Inhabitants of the ancient Town and Borough of Southwark beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Assurances of their faithful and steady Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government. They have observed with Concern, and not without due Indignation, the Prevalence of seditious Writings, and the Attempts of a few evil-minded Persons, to excite Discontents in the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects. They consider your Majesty's late Proclamation as an additional Instance of your Paternal Care; and they trust, that supported in your Royal Determination by the full Concurrence of both Houses of Parliament, and the Affection of your People, your Majesty will preserve undiminished that constitutional Authority under which your Subjects have enjoyed so great a Portion of Happiness, and the due Exercise of which is essential to the Preservation of their Rights and Liberties.

Signed in the Name, and on the Behalf of the Inhabitants,

Geo. Griffin.

[Delivered by Mr. George Griffin, Mr. Edward Layton, and Mr. William Golding.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiff, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Town of Northampton, whose Names are hereunto subscribed, actuated by a grateful Sense of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, entertaining a just Abhorrence of any Attempts to disturb the Peace of it, and anxious to support the Constitution of this Country against the insidious Attacks of it's Enemies, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most sincere Thanks for the affectionate Regard

you

you have ſhewn for your People in your Royal Proclamation againſt the Publiſhers and Diſperſers of wicked and ſeditious Pamphlets and Writings, which have an evident Tendency to ſubvert all Order and good Government in your Majeſty's Kingdoms; to introduce Anarchy and Confuſion amongſt us, and to render your Majeſty's Subjects inſecure in the Enjoyments of their Lives and Properties. We are reſolved to contribute, in the moſt effectual Manner in our Power, to diſcountenance all ſuch wicked and ſeditious Publications, and to diſcourage all ſuch Proceedings as tend to produce Riots and Tumults; and upon every Occaſion to ſhew ourſelves your Majeſty's loyal and peaceable Subjects.

[Delivered by the Right Hon. Lord Compton, and the Hon. Edward Bouverie, Repreſentatives in Parliament for that Town.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Aſſiſtants and Common Council of the Borough of Colcheſter, in the County of Eſſex, in Common Hall aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Aſſiſtants and Common Council of the Borough of Colcheſter aforeſaid, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our grateful Thanks for your Royal Proclamation againſt thoſe wicked and ſeditious Writings which of late have been printed and publiſhed, and which have been diſperſed throughout the Kingdom with an Induſtry that too clearly evinces the malevolent Spirit of the Authors, ever active to give Effect to their Object, which can be no other than to excite Jealouſies and Diſcontents in the Minds of your Majeſty's happy, faithful and affectionate Subjects.

Whilſt we thus expreſs our Thanks, we humbly beg Leave to add, that we conſider this well-timed Declaration of your Royal Intention to carry the Laws againſt the Offenders into Execution, as a freſh Proof of your parental and unremitting Care for preſerving the Peace and Happineſs of your People.

Attempts ſo repeatedly made to alienate the Minds of your faithful Subjects from their Duty to the beſt of Kings, from their Attachment to the known and approved Laws of the Conſtitution, and to weaken their Confidence in the Adminiſtration of Government, to which, under God, the Nation is indebted for it's preſent Proſperity, have given us inexpreſſible Concern; fearing, that without your Majeſty's timely Intervention, thoſe who were fully ſenſible of the Value, and truly grateful for the Enjoyment of ſuch inеſtimable Bleſſings, might be deprived of them by the ſubtle Arts and factious Deſigns of a Set of deſperate and diſappointed Men, and their Adherents, whoſe Aſſociations and Correſpondences we behold with the utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation, conſidering them calculated purpoſely to effect the Subverſion of all good Order and legal Authority, and to ſubſtitute in their Stead, Anarchy, Diſorder and Confuſion of every Kind through this happy Land.

Reflecting, with Gratitude, on the enviable Situation, which, under our preſent Form of Civil and Religious Government, we feel ourſelves poſſeſſed of, anxious alſo to preſerve and tranſmit the ſame unimpaired to Poſterity, we moſt humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that, as far as in our Power, it ſhall be our greateſt Ambition to render thoſe Commands, with which your Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to charge us, as effectual as may be; ſenſible that any Remiſsneſs on our Parts would be a Neglect of Duty equally dangerous to the true Intereſts of this Borough, and to the Liberty, Peace, and Happineſs of the Community at large.

Given under our Common Seal, this 31ſt Day of May, 1792.

[Delivered by Sir George Jackſon, Bart. Repreſentative in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Common Council of the City of Glaſgow, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with Hearts full of Gratitude for the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your mild, juſt and auſpicious Government.

Impreſſed with the higheſt Veneration for our excellent Conſtitution, it is with the utmoſt Satisfaction we obſerve, by your Majeſty's late Gracious Proclamation, that you are determined to preſerve that ancient Bulwark of Freedom ſacred from the Attacks of deſigning and deluded Men.

In our ſeveral Capacities of Magiſtrates and of Citizens, your Majeſty may reſt aſſured of our ſtrict Attention to the Recommendations contained in your Royal Proclamation; and, we truſt, Loyalty to your Majeſty, Subordination to the Laws, and a proper Senſe of the Benefits reſulting from our Civil and Religious Liberties, are too deeply rooted in the Minds and Manners of the People, to be ſhaken by the Cabals or ſeditious Publications of a few diſcontented Individuals.

That your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous, and that the Britiſh Conſtitution may remain, unimpaired, the Admiration of future, as of paſt Ages, is our moſt fervent and earneſt Prayer.

Signed and ſealed with the Common Seal of the City of Glaſgow, in Name and Preſence, and by Appointment of the Magiſtrates and Common Council of the ſaid City, in Council aſſembled.

James M'Dowall, Provoſt.

[Tranſmitted by James M'Dowall, Eſq; Provoſt of that City.]

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful and dutiful Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Council of the ancient City of St. Andrew's, beg Leave to expreſs our moſt grateful Acknowledgements for your Majeſty's late Proclamation, intended to ſuppreſs ſeditious Writings, and to maintain Order and good Government. The paternal Goodneſs of our Sovereign, which has long endeared him to his People, was never, in our humble Opinion, more conſpicuous, than in this recent Expreſſion of his Royal Will; and we are alike diſpoſed to lament and to condemn the Prevalence of that Frenzy, which conceals from Men the Bleſſings they actually enjoy, and creates a Craving for others that are only ideal. From reading the Hiſtory of the paſt, and viewing the Tranſactions of the preſent Times, we conſider no Deluſion to be ſo formidable as that, under which Nations, as well as Individuals, miſtake Licentiouſneſs for Liberty; and as we are convinced that regular Government, and a quiet Submiſſion to thoſe Laws, under which we and our Forefathers have flouriſhed, are the only Security for our Rights, both as Men and as Subjects, ſo we reprobate every Attempt to diſſeminate ſuch pernicious Principles as muſt, of Neceſſity, ſubvert them. Feeling that we have much Cauſe to bleſs God for having given us a Sovereign, who is the jealous Protector of our excellent Conſtitution, we conceive it to be our indiſpenſable Duty to ſecond his gracious Intentions, and to obey his Commands. It ſhall be our Study, as far as the Influence of our Example and Authority can reach, to cheriſh thoſe Sentiments of Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, for which the Inhabitants of this City have ever been diſtinguiſhed, and to concur in thoſe Meaſures which your Royal Wiſdom has ſuggeſted for handing down unimpaired to our Poſterity the Bleſſings of that Conſtitution, under which we have the Happineſs to live.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Town Council of the City of St. Andrew's, by Rob. Key, Dean of Guild.

David Walker, Baillie.
David Alexander, Baillie.
David Tod, Baillie.
Rob. Meldrum, Baillie.

[Tranſmitted by George Murray, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for that City.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates, Town Council, and Inhabitants of your Majeſty's Royal Borough of Queenſferry, being now convened, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Throne, with Sentiments of high Loyalty and Affection, to thank your Majeſty for your late Royal Proclamation againſt ſeditious and inflammatory Writings, and for preſerving the Peace of the Nation.

Happy under a Conſtitution eſtabliſhed at the glorious Æra of the Revolution, ſecuring to us the high National Liberty and Happineſs which, by the Bleſſing of God, we have ſince enjoyed under the mild and paternal Government of your Majeſty's illuſtrious Houſe, it is with deep Regret we obſerve the Spirit of Licentiouſneſs to come forward in our Times, in Combination againſt the Tranquillity of your Majeſty's Government, and in Writings calculated to miſrepreſent and defame the wiſe Principles of our happy Civil and Eccleſiaſtical Conſtitution, and to overturn the venerable and glorious Bulwarks of the Liberties of the Nation.

Cordially attached to your Majeſty, and intereſted in the Happineſs of our Fellow Subjects, we beg Leave highly to approve and applaud the late ſpirited Meaſures of your Majeſty's Miniſters for preſerving the Peace of the Country, and for defeating the Schemes of Men, who ſeem to have it as their Object to promote Practices which are ſeditious and diſorderly.

That your Majeſty may long reign over a free, loyal and happy People, is the earneſt Prayer of your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates, Town Council, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Queenſferry.

Signed in our Name, and at our Deſire, by our Chief Magiſtrate, Preſes of this Meeting held at Queenſferry the 1ſt Day of June, 1792 Years.

John Taylor.

[Tranſmitted by the Honourable Andrew Cochrane, Repreſentative in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the City of Aberdeen.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Town Council of the City of Aberdeen, beg Leave to approach the Throne, and to aſſure your Majeſty that we are moſt warmly and loyally attached to your Perſon and Family, and to the Government and Conſtitution of this Kingdom.

Satisfied as we are that the Happineſs and Proſperity of this great Empire do, under Divine Providence, chiefly depend upon a due Submiſſion to the Laws, and a juſt Confidence in the Integrity and Wiſdom of Parliament, we obſerve, with Aſtoniſhment and Indignation, that divers wicked and ſeditious Writings have been publiſhed and diſperſed, tending to raiſe and diſſeminate groundleſs Jealouſies and Diſcontents in the Minds of your faithful Subjects, reſpecting the Laws and happy Conſtitution of Government eſtabliſhed in Great Britain.

For repreſſing of which wicked Practices your Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to iſſue your Royal Proclamation, warning all your Subjects to guard againſt ſuch dangerous and ſeditious Attempts, as aiming at the Subverſion of all regular Government, and being inconſiſtent with the Peace and good Order of Society.

For this ſignal Inſtance of your Majeſty's paternal Care and Attention to preſerve to all your faithful Subjects the full Enjoyment of their Rights and Liberties, both Religious and Civil, we humbly beg Leave to return your Majeſty our moſt dutiful and grateful Thanks; and to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will uſe every Means in our Power to check and diſcountenance ſuch criminal Writings, and to prevent and ſuppreſs all Riots, Tumults and other Diſorders, which may be attempted to be raiſed or made within our Juriſdiction, upon any Pretext whatever.

Signed in Name, in Preſence, and by Appointment of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of Aberdeen, in Council convened, and the Common Seal of the City is affixed hereto, at Aberdeen, the 2d Day of June, in the Year 1792, by

Geo. Auldjo, Provoſt.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bolton-le-Moors, in the County Palatine of Lancaſter.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bolton-le-Moors, aſſembled at a Public Meeting on the 28th Day of May, 1792, for the Purpoſe of conſidering your Majeſty's Proclamation, expreſſive of your Royal Pleaſure to preſerve the Peace and Order of theſe Kingdoms by an exemplary and ſeaſonable Prevention of Practices tending to to ſow Sedition in the Minds of the People, and to produce Riots and Tumults in this Realm, and to ſecure, by juſt Authority, the invaluable Bleſſings of our happy Conſtitution in Church and State, humbly beg Leave to profeſs the pureſt Sentiments of Duty and Attachment to your Sacred Perſon and Government, yet not without feeling the deepeſt Concern for the Cauſe that has excited your gracious Attention to the Civil and Religious Intereſts of Society, at a Time when the Freedom of Opinion is proſtituted to the vileſt Purpoſes of Intrigues Abroad and Faction at Home.

Knowing by whom it is that Kings reign, and that a due Submiſſion to the Laws is the ſureſt Bond of Relation between the Prince and the People, it is our firm Determination, on theſe Grounds, to come forward, and declare ourſelves zealouſly attached to your Majeſty, and to our preſent Form of Government, the Admiration and the Envy of ſurrounding Nations.
